BICWA COMMUNITY WEBINARS

BICWA is currently offering Community Webinars to help the town of Pingelly to help generate more volunteers for their clubs whilst also upskilling on a range of topics.

In partnership with the Shire of Pingelly, BICWA is also offering a club renovation toolkit. This toolkit is an on demand 8 module online course which gives community groups, sporting and recreational clubs the skills to build and strengthen their groups, attract new members and promote social inclusion.

Each module is between 30-45 minutes and will include resources and activities to put your learnings into place.

Interested in enrolling? Please look for the flyer in this Pingelly Times or contact Ellen Cook, Community Development Officer on 9887 1066 or ellen.cook@pingelly.com.au to get signed up.

MOORDITJ YOUTH PROGRAM

On Friday the Shire of Pingelly was invited out to Pumphreys Bridge to experience and take part in the Aboriginal Youth Program. The Program is organised by Moorditj Youth and Sister Kate's, and has proved to be a vital experience for the youth. The Shire of Pingelly would like to thank Moorditj Youth (Malcolm Jetta) and Sister Kate's for inviting us to attend what is a fabulous initiative. The program will run over 6 camp outs throughout the wheatbelt. It was fabulous to see many of our local kids attend this program and we look forward to the next one.
