PRACC LANDSCAPING COMPLETE

The landscaping at the Pingelly Recreation & Cultural Centre (PRACC) has recently been completed, creating a welcoming entrance statement. The parks team managed this project, including reticulation, 105 plants, 55 bags of potting mix, 24 cubic metres of black pine wood chip mulch and 5 garden lights. It was great timing with the reopening of the PRACC kitchen and a new chef starting over the weekend!

COVID-19 PHASE 4

Due to the world-leading response to COVID in WA, Phase 4 will start on Saturday, June 27 (11.59pm Friday, June 26) and will result in:

- All existing gathering limits and the 100/300 rule removed;
- Gathering limits now only determined by WA's reduced 2sqm rule;
- Removal of seated service requirements at food businesses and licensed premises;
- No requirement to maintain patron register at food businesses and licensed premises;
- Alcohol can be served as part of unseated service arrangements;
- All events permitted except for large scale, multi-stage music festivals;
- Unseated performances permitted at venues such as concert halls, live music venues, bars, pubs and nightclubs; and
- Gyms operating unstaffed, but regular cleaning must be maintained.

Check with individual local business and community groups for specific information about their operations. To stay informed with the latest updates, visit the Department of Health WA website, or Healthy WA Facebook page.
