INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITY: WHEELCHAIR BASKETBALL HAVE A GO DAY

The Shire has been successful in obtaining the International Day of People with Disability Grant funded by Department of Communities to run a Wheelchair Basketball Have a Go Day! IDPWD is about increasing awareness of people with disability and celebrating their achievements and contributions to the community.

Pingelly is excited to be welcoming Clint Morgan from Rebound WA to facilitate Wheel Life; a program incorporating a brief presentation about his journey overcoming adversity as a wheelchair basketball athlete, before local Pingelly people are given the opportunity to step into a wheelchair to learn the basic skills of the game.

For more information, check out the flyer attached to this week's Shire News. RSVPs can be made by contacting Sam Kempton, Community Development Officer via 9887 1066 or cdo@pingelly.wa.gov.au.

NATIONAL ROAD SAFETY WEEK

National Road Safety Week serves as a reminder about the important role Pingelly plays as a stopover to support the wellbeing of local and regional travellers. Pingelly is unique in that Great Southern Highway passes through the CBD, so travellers are well placed to stop and support our local businesses, as well as take a rest at Memorial Park. There are also toilet and playground facilities nearby at Pioneer Park for families so their journey becomes part of their destination. For more information visit roadsafetyweek.com.au.

CATERING EXPRESSION OF INTEREST: 2021 AUSTRALIA DAY BREAKFAST

Australia Day in Pingelly will be celebrated from 7.30am on Tuesday, 26 January 2021 at the PRACC. Expressions of interest are now invited from local businesses or community groups to cater for the Community Breakfast. For more information about catering requirements contact Sam Kempton, cdo@pingelly.wa.gov.au or 9887 1066. Submissions close 27 November 2020.

TETRATHLON STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS: AMENDED POOL OPENING HOURS | SATURDAY, 28 NOVEMBER

The Shire of Pingelly is pleased to be welcoming the Cuballing Equestrian Club to host the swimming component of the Pony Club WA's State Tetrathlon Championships at Pingelly Swimming Pool on Saturday, 28 November.

To accommodate the event, the Swimming Pool will open to the public from 3pm on Saturday, 28 November.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS: TOWN HALL REFERENCE GROUP

Expressions of interest from members of the community to help shape the planning and future operation of the Town Hall are open until Wednesday, 25 November 2020. Council has endorsed the community-inspired direction for a multipurpose space comprising of tourism, community and historical uses. The next step is forming a Reference Group which will comprise of representation from Council, staff and a number of community groups, as well as a representative from the: Aboriginal Community, Local Business Community and General Community. The Expression of Interest form is available to download from the Shire's website and attached to this weeks Shire News.
