CHANGE LEADER AWARD

We are thrilled to extend our heartfelt congratulations to Shire of Pingelly Chief Executive Officer Mr. Andrew Dover, for his outstanding achievement in winning the Change Leader award at the 2023 State Annual Conference.

Andrew's visionary leadership and unwavering commitment have played a pivotal role in driving positive change within Pingelly. His instrumental contributions to reshaping policies, implementing transformative procedures, and spearheading economic development initiatives have truly set a new standard for excellence.

Notable accomplishments under Andrew's guidance include the successful establishment of the Arts and Culture Framework, the transformation of the town hall into the remarkable museum it is today, and the creation of the beautiful Gnalla Wangkiny Park. This recognition is a testament to Andrew's dedication and the collective efforts of the Pingelly community.

Congratulations to Andrew and the entire Shire of Pingelly on this well-deserved honour.

LEST WE FORGET

Honouring the sacrifices of our brave servicemen and women, the 2023 Remembrance Day service in Pingelly was solemnly delivered by the Pingelly RSL Sub Branch. The ceremony was attended by the Shire President Jackie McBurney, along with Cr Narducci, Cr Cheney & Cr Hotham. (absent from photo).

RATES

This is a friendly reminder that the second instalment of rates is due on November 27, 2023. We understand that circumstances may vary, and if you're facing difficulties in meeting this deadline, we encourage you to visit us at the Shire Office. Our team is here to assist you in arranging a suitable payment plan that accommodates your needs. Your satisfaction and financial well-being are important to us, and we are committed to working together to find a solution.
